PLATFORM,

of the

Socialistic Labor Party.

Labor being the source of all wealth and civilization, and useful labor being possible only by and through the associated efforts of the people, the means of labor should therefore in all justice belong to Society.

The system under which Society is now organized is imperfect, and hostile to the general welfare, since through it the directors of labor, necessarily a small minority, are enabled in the competitive struggle, to practically monopolize all the means of labor—all opportunities to produce for and supply the wants of the people, and the masses are therefore maintained in poverty and dependence.

Since the ruling political parties have always sought only the direct interests of the dominant or wealthy classes, endeavoured to uphold their industrial supremacy, and to perpetuate the present condition of Society, it is now the duty of the working people to organize themselves into one great Labor Party using political power to achieve industrial independence.

The industrial emancipation of Labor, which must be achieved by the working classes themselves, independent of all political parties but their own, is consequently the great end, to which every political movement should be subordinate as a means.

The material condition of the working people, in all civilized countries being identical, and resulting from the same cause, the struggle for industrial emancipation is International, and must naturally be co-operative and mutual: therefore the organization of National and International Trade and Labor Unions upon a Socialist basis is an absolute necessity.

For these reasons the Socialistic Labor Party has been founded.

We demand that the resources of life—the means of production, public transportation and communication, land, machinery, railroads, telegraph lines, canals, etc., become, as fast as practicable, the common property of the whole people through the Government, to abolish the wages system and substitute in its stead co-operative production with a just distribution of its rewards.

The Socialistic Labor Party presents the following demands as measures to ameliorate the condition of the working people under our present competitive system and to gradually accomplish the entire removal of the same.

1st. Eight hours for the present as a legal working day and prompt punishment of all violators.

2d. Sanitary inspection of all conditions of labor, means of subsistence and dwellings included.

3d. Bureaus of Labor Statistics in all States as well as in the National Government. The officers of the same to be elected by the people.

4th. Prohibition of the use of prison labor by private employers or corporations.

5th. Prohibition of the employment of children under fourteen years of age in industrial establishments.

6th. Compulsory education of all children under fourteen years of age. All materials, books etc., necessary in the public schools, to be furnished free of charge.

7th. Prohibition of the employment of female labor in occupations detrimental to health or morality, and equalization of women’s wages with those of men where equal service is performed.

8th. Strict laws making employers liable for all accidents resulting through their negligence to the injury of their employees.

9th. All wages to be paid in the lawful money of the Nation and at intervals of time not exceeding one week. Violations of this rule to be legally punished.

10th. All conspiracy laws operating against the right of working men to strike or induce others to strike shall be repealed.

11th. Gratuitous administration of justice in all courts of law.

12th. All indirect taxation to be abolished and a graded income tax collected in its stead.

13th. All banking and insurance to be conducted by the Government.

14th. The right of suffrage shall in no wise be abridged.

15th. Direct popular legislation enabling the people to propose or reject any law at their will, and introduction of Minority representation in all legislative elections.

16th. Every public officer shall be at all times subject to prompt recall by the election of a successor.

RESOLUTIONS

adopted at the Congress of the Socialistic Labor Party held at Newark, N.J., December 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 1877.

1st. The emancipation of Labor is a Social problem, a problem concerning the whole human race and embracing both sexes. The emancipation of women will be accomplished with the emancipation of men, and the so-called women's rights question will be solved with the Labor question.

All evils and wrongs of the present Society can be abolished only when economical freedom is gained for men as well as for women. It is the duty therefore of the wives and daughters of the working-men to organize themselves and take their places within the ranks of struggling Labor. To aid and support them in this work is the duty of men. By uniting their efforts they will succeed in breaking the economical fetters, and a new and free race of men and women will rise recognizing each other as peers.

We acknowledge the perfect equality of rights of both sexes and in the Socialistic Labor Party this equality of rights is a principle and is strictly observed.

2d. All laws threatening with imprisonment and fine those unemployed workingmen whom necessity compels to wander as “tramps” in search of work, are unconstitutional and inhuman—as poverty is thereby made a crime—and as this injustice is committed in the interest of the capitalistic class—we demand the immediate repeal of these disgraceful laws.

3d. The importation of Coolies under contract must be immediately prohibited, and the Coolies already in America released from all similar obligations.

4th. The National Executive Committee shall aid and when possible undertake the publication and distribution of Socialistic circulatn and pamphlets.

5th. Every member is expected to subscribe for at least one of the Party organs.
PROCEEDINGS

NATIONAL CONGRESS

—OF THE—

WORKINGMEN’S PARTY OF THE UNITED STATES,

Held at Pythian Temple Hall, Newark, N.J., Dec. 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th and 31st, 1877. At 10 o’clock A.M., Dec. 26th, the Corresponding Secretary of the Executive Committee, Philip Van Patten, called the meeting to order and read the list of sections entitled, according to the books of the Executive Committee, to representation in the Congress.

Comrade G. Luebkert, of Cincinnati, was elected Chairman, pro tem. After a short address appropriate to the occasion, the chairman took his seat. Comrades C.E. Collenburg and W. Reinhard were chosen Secretaries, pro tem.

A Committee on Credentials was then chosen. It consisted of seven delegates, namely: Gabriel, McGuire, Burger, Winter, Trautwein, Kaufman and Parsons. The Congress then adjourned until 1½ o’clock P.M., to give the Committee on Credentials time to complete its work.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At 1½ o’clock P.M. the Chairman called the meeting to order. The Committee on Credentials reported that the credentials of the following delegates were contested by the Secretary of the Executive Committee.

ALLEGHANY [ALLEGHENY] CITY, BOHEMIAN.—As this Section asked representation through the delegate of the German speaking section of that city, and as no delegate can under any circumstances have more than one vote, the credentials were rejected.

BROOKLYN, GERMAN.—Resolved, That the sum of $10.00 paid by that section two weeks since, be credited to account of extra tax of that section, instead of for Congress reports as originally sent, and upon their promise to have the account promptly settled, the delegates from Brooklyn Section were admitted.
CINCINNATI, GERMAN.—The credentials were accepted upon condition of the immediate payment of $13.25 back taxes, which condition was complied with.

NEWARK, BOHEMIAN.—This Section had been over four months in the Party, but was delinquent; since, however, the Secretary of the Section produced a money order for dues which he had neglected to send, but which had been really paid by the Section. The credentials were accepted.

PATERSON, GERMAN.—The delegate was admitted upon payment of the amount of dues for which the section was delinquent.

NEW YORK, ENGLISH.—Credentials for two delegates were presented; Leander Thompson, one of the delegates, read the list of members of this New York Section, showing that over one hundred members were enrolled. The books of the Executive Committee showed that dues had not been paid for over forty members. Thompson admitted that the balance were new members who had not been the necessary two months in the party, but he offered to pay dues for them. It was resolved to accept only the credentials of L. Thompson as he had received the highest number of votes in his Section.

The Congress constituted itself with the following delegates:
G. Reinhold, representing Albany, N.Y.

Resolved, All matters concerning the internal affairs of the party shall be acted upon in Executive Session with closed doors, and all deliberations upon matters of principle, organization, etc., shall be conducted publicly.

The Congress then passed into Executive Session.

The following correspondences were read. The Section of Newport, Ky., expressed sympathy, and hope that the present name of the party would be preserved. A workingmen’s organization in Eminence, Henry Co., Ky., asked that a financial plank be inserted in the platform. A communication from Conzett, editor of the Vorbote, was referred to the Committee on Press.

Telegram from the Ohio Staats Zeitung, advised the Congress to adopts the entire “Greenback Platform,” as the only means to save society. [Considerable merriment.]

Section of Detroit requests that the Congress should recognize the Detroit Socialist as the official party organ in the English language. Referred to Committee on Press.

Resolved, To place the correspondence on file.

An invitation of the Socialist Women’s Society in Newark, to a festival in honor of the delegates, was accepted with thanks.

Resolved, To adopt the Order of Business suggested by the Executive Committee.

Resolved, No delegate shall speak more than three minutes at a time, nor more than twice upon the same subject, except with the permission of the House.

The following is a summary of the various points in the report of the Executive Committee:

The difficulties attending the work of uniting the elements previously discordant and at strife with one another, were explained. When these had become fairly organized, the party press fell into difficulty. The Labor Standard was on the point of suspension in the early part of September, 1876, and continued in the same uncertain condition in spite of many large cash remittances, until May of the succeeding year, when the editor and a faction which he had built up, stopped the paper as a party organ, and reissued it as a paper of their own. They having been assisted in this transaction by the Board of Supervision, the Executive Committee appealed to the Party, and demanded the removal of the Board of Supervision by general vote of the party. This was done by a majority of over three-fourths of the votes cast, and a new Board of Supervision was elected in Newark, New Jersey. In regard to political action, the Constitution was very imperfect, since no provisions were made for the management of campaigns, and the Resolutions of the Unity Congress were discouraging to all political efforts on the part of the laboring people. Therefore much strife had occurred within the party, sections were lost and others continually dissatisfied. The Executive Committee finally decided to permit all political efforts of the sections, which seemed to have good prospects and honorable management, but insisted that all political efforts should be directed toward improvement of the economical condition of the laboring people. The agitation for a National Bureau of Labor See had resulted in good effects upon the membership and the trades unions. The agitation trips of comrades McGuire, Savary, Parsons, Thorsmark and others, were successful in organizing many new sections and instructing the membership in general. The Vorbote, which was one of the German party organs, was still subject to purchase by the party. A large debt was owing to the editor. The Arbeiter Stimme, the party organ in the German language had been scarcely supporting itself since the Unity Congress, and was now seriously in debt. The Executive Committee had proposed the junction of this paper with the Vorbote by which arrangement a profit instead of a deficit would result. The proposition was, however, rejected. In the Fall of ’77, the editor of Arbeiter Stimme gave notice of his intention to leave the city. Temporary arrangements were made whereby the paper should still be issued until another editor could be provided. After some trouble, Comrade A. Jonas consented to assume the editorial management which he had since conducted in an able and satisfactory manner. The events of July and August were productive of much valuable agitation, and the Party had since gained ground very rapidly. The new membership had everywhere taken active part in the political campaigns of last Fall, often with much success, but sometimes only to their ruin. The Constitution was found inadequate to the necessities of the hour, and the Executive Committee now hoped that its defects would be corrected. It was further stated that while the Executive Committee was made the centre of authority and obliged to guide the organization, it had no power to enforce the constitution. In regard to foreign relations, there was little to report. Instead of delegates, the Executive Committee had sent an address to the International Congress at Ghent, Belgium, explaining the condition of the Party in America, and reviewing the history of the Labor Movement since 1860. The last Congress having recommended that the Executive Committee should issue pamphlets explaining the Labor Movement, an able brochure from the pen of Dr. Douai, entitled Better Times, had been published, and was now being circulated. Since the Union Congress of 1876, the following Socialistic newspapers had been started in the interest of our Party:

The Social Democrat, (Daily) Milwaukee, Wis.
Emancipator, (Weekly) Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

Vorbote—“The Warning”—(Weekly), Chicago.
Milwaukee Socialist; (Daily) Milwaukee, Wis.
Delnicke Listy—“Voice of Labor”—(Weekly), Bohemian, Cleveland.

The Executive Committee suggested improvements in minor details of organization, more especially that instead of a Corresponding Secretary acting as a member of the Executive Committee he should merely be a clerk, who could be hired or discharged at will.

Resolved, To accept the report of the Executive Committee and refer it to the committee to be elected for examination.

The same with the report of the Board of Supervision. Its essential points are as follows:

“The Board of Supervision wrote to the Labor Standard Publishing Association for the purpose of reclaiming the Labor Standard for the Party. We did not, however, receive any answer. Therefore, the Board of Supervision proposes the founding of a new official party organ for the purpose of disseminating our principles among the English speaking workers. There should also be a more lively agitation kept up by sending out traveling orators. In regard to political campaigns the Board of Supervision would recommend a strict adherence to our principles, and to reject all compromises with other political parties. The suspension of McCready by the Boston Section, on account of using fraudulent election ballots, was sustained by the Board of Supervision. We further recommend the organization of trade-unions on socialistic principles and unity with them in forming a solid phalanx against all our enemies."

Resolved, To proceed to the election of the necessary committees.

Resolved, The Committee on Platform shall consist of nine members; all others only five.

The committees elected were:

Committee on Report of the Executive Committee.—Bartosek, Schaefer, Frey, Christiansen, Rowley.

Committee on Report of Board of Supervision.—The same delegates.

Committee on Platform.—Currlin, Eisman, Kaufman, Gabriel, Wagner, Parsons, Dumuid, Coufal and Schwab.
